Arrest in New York of a Celebrated Spanish Bank Note Forger.

Pinkerton Runs to the Earth Another Gent Whose Ways are Dark.

Any Amount of Counterfeiting Nipped in the Bud.

Spanish Bank Note Forger Arrested.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Stephen C. Bradwell, a commercial traveler, 27 East Eighty-sixth street, was brought up at the Tombs police court yesterday afternoon by Detective Pinkerton, who was accompanied by counsel for Mr. Duranton, prosecutor, and the Spanish consul in this city, on a charge of having forged and uttered notes of the denomination of $25 to the amount of $25,000 on the Spanish Bank of Havana. Detective Pinkerton stated that about a year ago it was discovered heavy forgeries had been perpetrated on the Spanish bank, at Havana, Cuba, of $50 notes, which were circulated in New York, and also in the rural districts on the island of Cuba. The marks became flooded with them, and the bank found it necessary to call in all notes of that denomination. The Spanish consul in this city was directed to investigate the matter, and he employed Detective Pinkerton. About three months ago it was ascertained that another counterfeit $25 note on the same bank had been prepared. Pinkerton, in following up several clues, was brought in contact with Bradwell, who acted as a go-between. He found that Bradwell was connected with men of bad repute, and that he endeavored to negotiate with Spanish merchants for the sale of a quantity of forged papers. Arrangements were made with a Spanish merchant by which one of Pinkerton's detectives was introduced as an intermediary between the merchant and Bradwell. Negotiations were entered into, and the detective offered to handle the whole issue, and stipulated that it should be given to him exclusively. Bradwell informed the detective about a week ago that the notes would be ready last Wednesday, and it was understood that he was to receive thirty cents on the dollar, and that the first lot was to consist of $25,000 in $25 notes. An appointment was made for a meeting in a large beer saloon, and the detective was on hand and represented to Bradwell that he had $8,000 in the United States bills to be exchanged for the counterfeit notes. Bradwell handed over a value with the forged notes, and the detective went out to see a friend, who was also a detective, and Bradwell then put under arrest. He submitted quickly, but refused to say from whom he got the notes, or by whom they were printed. The National bank note company, which prepared the original and genuine notes, say the forged notes are good imitations. It was stated that the accused was formerly a respectable merchant in Maiden Lane, and that he is an uncle of Sherman Bradwell, the banker, and that he was implicated in the Alliger forgeries. The detective says Bradwell was arrested once in Philadelphia in connection with stolen bonds. Judge Duffy committed him for trial in default of $10,000 bail, and sent the counterfeit notes to the district attorney's office.

That Ditched Train.

GALVESTON, Nov. 19.—A News Corsicana special says: "The train loaded with United States troops which was ditched last night four miles north of here arrived this morning. Eight of the most seriously injured men were left here for treatment. Forty-eight were injured by the accident."

The St. Louis Census.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 19.—Professor Woodward, supervisor of census, completed his work of re-enumerating the city last night, and announces officially that the population of St. Louis on the 1st of last June was 350,915. This is an increase of 29,719 over the census taken by Supervisor Solomon.

Ole Mine Inspector's Report.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 19.—The annual report of the state inspector of mines shows that during the year ending May 31, 1880, the aggregate output of coal from the Ohio mines was 6,397,725 tons, and the commissioner estimates that the aggregate output for the year ending December 31, 1880, will reach, if it does not exceed, 7,000,000 tons.

Fire in Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 19.—This morning about three o'clock, flames were discovered issuing from the gun works of James Brown & Sons, on Wood street. An alarm was at once sounded and the fire department responded quickly, but before the flames could be checked the entire building was gutted. A large amount of cartridges were stored on the third floor, which became ignited and kept up a continual fusillade, rendering it dangerous to the firemen to approach the building. Finding it useless to attempt to save the structure, which, in less than fifteen minutes from the time the flames were discovered, was in ruins, attention was directed to the valuable buildings surrounding it, which were with difficulty saved from destruction, not, however, without being considerably damaged by water. The origin of the fire is not known. Loss will probably reach $35,000. Brown & Sons have been peculiarly unfortunate, having been burned out three times within twelve years, besides having their gun works gutted by a mob during the memorable riots of 1877.

An Ineligible Congressman.

MONTPELIER, Nov. 19.—Rumors are current that Gen. W. A. Grout, member of congress elect from the Twenty-second district of Vermont, is ineligible, he having been born in Canada and has never been naturalized. General Grout says his parents were natives of Vermont, and six weeks prior to his birth they moved into Canada, where he was born, and where he lived for about ten years. They then came back to the states. His father never exercised any right of citizenship while in Canada; that under the statute of 1802, children of parents who are citizens of the United States were, if born outside of the jurisdiction of the United States, not disqualified from exercising their rights as citizens of the United States.

The Times Again.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Times, in a leading article this morning, says: "If the cabinet, or a majority of its members, should be compelled to accept what we have said, the Irish executive deems it indispensable for the performance of its functions, we trust there will be no unwise attempt to obstruct or censure that course. If the government should not deem it necessary to apply for extra powers, it is apparent they might be prepared to face the storm of opposition when parliament meets, which will seriously imperil the prospects of a just settlement of the land question."

Indian Treatment of a Baby.

COUNCIL BLUFF, IOWA, Nov. 19.—This morning H. C. Keller, baggage agent of the C. and N. W. railroad in this city, opened a large basket which had been found in a coach on the incoming train from Chicago last night, and after the passengers had left, and was horrified to find concealed therein the dead body of a male infant five or six days old. The infant either froze to death, or died from neglect. On the dress was written the following: "Mr. King, guardian of the poor, Round Grove, Ill.," and also the name of Stephen Vincent.

A Noted Horse Dead.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 19.—The dam of the four year old trotting wonder Trickett died. She died Saturday last at Indian Hill. She was the property of R. S. Veech. Her death was the result of epizooty. Her produce, though but five in number, and all sired by Trickett, could not now be bought for $30,000.

Voice of the Thunder.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Times in a leading editorial says: "We have no doubt whatever that the power of arresting a few active organizers and agents of agrarian terrorism in Ireland would bring immediate and enormous relief, not only to peaceable persons, but to many of the docile peasantry who have been coerced to join in agitation."

Senator Nominated.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 19.—The democrats of the legislature in caucus have nominated James L. Pugh for United States senator, to fill the death of Senator Houston, which has been filled by Senator Pryor by appointment. The election takes place next Tuesday.

Hanged To-day.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The negro, Joseph Neverson, alias Babe Bedford, and Edward Queenan, convicted of the murder of George Phillips Hirth on the evening of January 17 last, were hanged here to-day at 11:27.

Will Reply.

ATHENS, Nov. 19.—The chamber of deputies has passed by a vote of 103 to 80 an address in reply to the speech from the throne.

Charged with Murder.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—A telegram from Cork reports two brothers named Moore have been arrested on a charge of being concerned in the murder of Wheeler. Michael Moore accompanied Wheeler when he was killed.

Indications.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—For the lower lake region, lower barometer, stationary for higher temperature, southerly winds and partly cloudy weather.

THE VICTORS

In the Trial Heats of the International Regatta this Afternoon.

The First Heat Won by Ross, and the Second by Laycock.

How the Letter Carriers were Entertained at Indianapolis.

Progress of the Agitation in Ireland.—General Foreign News.

The International Regatta.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—In the first heat this afternoon to determine the chance of contestants for the prize in the international regatta tomorrow, Wallace Ross, of St. John, N. B., won the heat by a length, Hosmer, of Boston, Mass., second; Riley, of Saratoga, third; Nicholson, of Stockton, of Ontario, fourth. It was a fine race. The course was from the Putney aqueduct to Cheshwick church, two and a half miles. The water was rough, but no rain fell. Ross got the best of the start, and Riley fell behind. At Grass wharf, Nicholson had the lead, Ross second, and rowing finely. At Crabtree Ross regained the lead, the others rowing abreast. At Hamersmith Hosmer took second place, and it was then a fine race to the finish.

Another account says Ross won the heat by three lengths and that there was a length and a half between Hosmer and Riley. Time 16 minutes and 22 seconds.

The second heat over the same course and distance was won by Laycock, Warren Smith, of Halifax, N. S., second, Trickett, of Sidney, N. S. W., third, Hawdon, of Delaware, fourth. Laycock rowed in splendid form.

Laycock won easily at Hamersmith. He was four lengths ahead of Smith, who was leading Trickett three lengths. Opposite the doors Trickett made a speed and almost reached Smith, but then slackened and was beaten easily.

Another account says Trickett touched Smith's back and stopped rowing on a claim of foul. The press boat was unable to follow the race on account of the high tide preventing her passing under the bridge at the starting point.

THE LETTER CARRIERS.

How They Were Entertained Last Night.

Special Dispatch to the Sentinel.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 19.—The National association of letter carriers attended the Park theatre last evening upon invitation of the Dickson Bros., and afterwards sat down to a banquet at the Circle house given by the letter carriers of Indianapolis. This morning the following officers were elected:

President, Wm. McFadden, St. Louis.

Vice president, Wm. P. Wild, Broadway, New York.

Secretary, Henry S. Mensch, Fort Wayne, Ind.

Treasurer, J. P. Nash, Louisville, Ky.

Financial committee, Frank Wilson, Indianapolis, Ind.; J. G. Smith, Chicago, Ill.; Moses Church, Worcester, Mass.

The association returned thanks to the proprietors of the Grand hotel, the Indianapolis letter carriers, also the city press, and then adjourned to meet in Brooklyn, on the third Tuesday in November, 1881.

Big Chicago Failure.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Dixey's Chicago grain and provision exchange, Nos. 122 and 124 Clark street, failed this morning owing to the rapid depreciation of values of grain, provisions and stocks. It has branches in several cities of the west. It failed about a year ago but resumed business shortly after. Wm. Dixey is president. This a different concern from the Chicago public produce exchange. Particulars are not known. The liabilities are probably not heavy.

A Heavy Failure.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—J. & W. Hassack, of Odell, Ill., made an assignment yesterday to John McWilliams and P. W. Kenyon. This is the heaviest failure ever known in Livingston county, the liabilities being a quarter of a million to $300,000. The Hassacks are large grain dealers and owe nearly everybody in this vicinity, and their failure causes great dismay. It is estimated they will not pay over fifty cents on the dollar.

MURDER TRIAL.

Evidence for the Defense Closed, and Witness for the State Re-called.

The Trial Concluded at Noon, To-day.

The Prisoner and His Brother on the Stand.

The Jury Now Being Addressed by Mr. Heach.

Full Report of the Proceedings.

The Snurr murder trial still attracts a great deal of public attention, the criminal court room being crowded almost to suffocation while the examination of witnesses is in progress.

The first gentleman placed on the stand after 3 o'clock, where THE SENTINEL'S report of yesterday left off, was who testified as follows: Live at No. 170 Broadway. The question was here asked by Mr. Stratton whether the witness had not some four or five years ago had a difficulty in Hornung's brewery with the late John Mayer.

GEORGE C. THIERM

Objected to by Mr. Heach; objection sustained, and exception taken by Mr. Stratton.

Several more questions were asked of witness in order to elicit the quarrelsome disposition of the dead man, but objections were taken to them by Mr. Heach, who was sustained by the court.

DR. W. H. MYERS.

Am a practicing physician and surgeon of this city; graduated in 1855; visited John Snurr at the county jail and examined the wound upon his nose; my impression is now that the wound was not occasioned by a bite. It was not a blunt instrument, with which the wound was inflicted; the wound was an incised one.

A clasp knife was here exhibited to the doctor, who, after carefully examining it, gave it as his opinion that the wound was not occasioned by a knife. A rough sketch of the wound originally made by Myers was then exhibited to him and identified with the remark: "The wound is similar, but the physiognomy is not."

Cross-examined: The wound could not have been made by the teeth. Dr. Houchling called me to inspect Snurr's proboscis; I observed other scars upon the young man's face.

Redirect: Human teeth wounds are poisonous. The wound could have been occasioned by a grip between the thumb and fore finger.

Mr. Stratton arose and suggested that the court instruct the jury in writing. Lieut. Frank Wilkinson, of the police force, was then sworn, but his examination was deferred until this morning. The next witness examined was the prisoner at the bar,

JOHN SNURR.

He testified as follows: I have lived six years in Fort Wayne; was present at the fight that resulted in Mayer's death; when Snurr had struck Mayer twice, I said: "For God's sake, don't strike him again;" after that, I told Snurr he had better go away; I went with him to the canal bank, where I stayed, and he went on; that was the last I saw of him; I went back to the brewery; saw Mayer's body lying in the office.

Cross-examined: Saw Perry Snurr run after Mayer, and strike him with a stick of wood; John Snurr then got another stick, and struck Mayer three times; John Kinz and I ran up to him; John Snurr said: "I want to kill the son of a b—."

DR. J. M. DINNER.

I visited John Snurr at the jail, on Aug. 29; Mayer's nose, at the upper part, was lacerated; should judge that the wound was caused by finger-nails; it was a ragged wound.

Cross-examined: I have been practicing medicine since February, 1879; did not express the opinion, in the first place, when Judge Sinclair told me at my office, that if I didn't say the wound was caused by a bite, he would make me say so, I threatened to kick him out of my office.

Judge Sinclair stated to the court and jury that he wished it to be distinctly understood that he was not afraid of Dr. Dinner. He would like to go out into the middle of the street with him.

The witness continued: When I went there first, the wound had a piece of plaster on it; I put in a stitch; the nose was not cut clear through to the nostril.

Cross-examined: Have no ill-will against the defendant.

CAPT. E. B. SMITH.

I am captain of the police of Fort Wayne; have lived here thirty years; know John Snurr's reputation for fighting, quarreling, etc.; it is bad; don't know his reputation as to truthfulness.

LIEUTENANT WILKINSON.

I am lieutenant in the police force; am acquainted with John Snurr; don't know his reputation for truth and veracity.

GEORGE HUMPHRECHT.

I have been a policeman six years; have known John Snurr five years; live in the Ninth ward; know John Snurr's reputation for truth and veracity; it is bad.

THOMAS D-YLE.

I have been a policeman four years; know John Snurr; I have lived here about a year; have known John Snurr five years; don't know his reputation for truth and veracity.

PATRICK O'RYAN.

I am a policeman; have been on the Fort Wayne force five years; live in the Third ward; have known John Snurr about three years; never arrested him.

Another police officer was placed on the stand, but knew nothing about the prisoner.

JACOB BOTTENBURG (RE CALLED.)

I did not strike John Snurr with an umbrella; did not strike him at all.

Cross-examined: It was a rainy day.

MRS. MAYER (RECALLED.)

I do not recognize the knife produced, as having belonged to my husband; my husband never carried a knife of any kind; I kept track of my husband's pockets to see that he had no knife; I examined his pockets on Sunday (the day he was killed) at 4 o'clock; I examined his pockets every Sunday; was not afraid for my husband to carry a knife; examined all his pockets; he never wore a vest; did not examine his pockets when he was brought home dead; examined them next day; there was no knife there.

JOSEPH MILLER.

Have lived seventeen years in Fort Wayne; knew John Mayer five years; saw Mayer, two or three times a week; never saw him with a knife.

Cross-examined: Boarded at Mayer's house two months; was often there after I quit boarding there; always saw Mayer there; I am a brother of Mrs. Mayer; have not talked with Mr. Heach or my sister about the testimony I should give; I told Mr. Heach I never saw Mayer have a knife.

HENRY BILLOW (RE-CALLED.)

I was well acquainted with John Mayer; never saw him with a knife. It was now 12:35 o'clock.

Mr. Heach said he had one more witness to place on the stand, but he would not be able to get through with him before dinner.

The court then adjourned till 1:30, and the jury were shown their liberty during the adjournment.

When the court reassembled in the afternoon, Mr. Heach was not ready with his witness, or had concluded not to place him on the stand, so the giving of evidence was at an end.

It was decided that the counsel for the state and the defendant should not be limited as to their address during the jury.

Mr. Heach commenced speaking at 2 o'clock, and presented the case for the state in a forcible manner. He was still addressing the jury at the hour of going to press.

ADDITIONAL CITY NEWS.

Mr. H. S. Mensch returned from Indianapolis to-day, where he had been in attendance on the convention of letter carriers.

John Hughes was the only offender that appeared at the mayor's court this morning. He was fined two dollars and costs for drunkenness.

The case of Thomas vs. the Wash company was settled last evening, the jury returning a verdict for $4,000. The claim was $10,000.

The case of Bennet vs. Lewis has been settled in the superior court, the plaintiff receiving judgment and $6.54. This was an appeal from Justice Ryan's court, where less than $4 had been granted.

Some thieves, who are at present unknown, broke into the old grocery stand of Cours & Son, Calhoun street, where the Century church festival is being held, and stole therefrom several cans of oysters and several other good things. The police are on their track. A man who would steal ice-cream on such a night as last night deserves to be frozen stiff.

THE GARLAND.

1880.

If you want a good, reliable, safe burner get the Garland.

You should not buy a stove without looking through H. J. Ash's stock.

H. J. Ash's stock of stoves is larger and more complete than that of any other house in the city.

The Astral is a first-class, safe, burner, a powerful heater and is sold very cheap.

H. J. Ash will take old stoves in part payment for new ones.

If you want a cook stove see the Alderman and Astral Ranges before you buy one. They will burn hard coal or wood, and keep a continuous fire, at H. J. Ash's Stove Emporium, No. 9 East Columbia street.

You will find better bargains in stoves of all kinds at H. J. Ash's than any other place in Northern Indiana, and don't you forget it. No. 9 East Columbia St. Nov1stf

AMUSEMENTS.

THE ORIGINAL "JOSE."

Citizens who were so thoroughly disgusted with the exhibition recently made by the "Mrs. Joshua Whitcomb" company, should bear in mind

the fact that the so-called comedy named is but a weak, silly imitation of the real, original "Joshua Whitcomb" which is to be presented at the opera-house next Tuesday evening, by Mr.

Don Thompson and his splendid troupe of star comedians. Bear the date in mind, and secure your seats at Woodworth's drugstore before it is too late.

PETER MORAN.

Brief Sketch of the Life and

Death of a Prominent and Esteemed Citizen.

A Career of Usefulness Prematurely Ended by an Incurable Disease.

The Remains of the Deceased

Buried to-day with Appropriate Ceremonies.

The Funeral Largely Attended.

The funeral of the late Peter Moran, took place this morning, shortly after 9 o'clock, the time previously announced. The cortege was unusually long, and included many of Fort

Wayne's most prominent citizens, showing the high esteem in which the deceased had been held during his life of usefulness and enterprise.

The services were conducted at the Cathedral (Roman Catholic) and the remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery.

For some time prior to his death,
